Attention leaf-peepers: You'd better fill up the gas tank; the season to drive through winding New England back roads to check out the scenery is here.

For travelers who like a little luxury with their foliage, the Stowe Mountain Lodge in Vermont is the ideal place to make a pit-stop in the coming weeks.

It's so Stowe

The Lodge is only seven miles outside of downtown Stowe, a charming village full of gourmet restaurants and boutiques.

"It's really a neat, little, old town," says Fidel. "But it's always nice to come stay at the Lodge, where it's a bit more secluded."
