Vermont

Stowe, the East's grande-dame ski area, gets its first grand base resort, à la fancy Western and European ski destinations. The ski-in, ski-out Stowe Mountain Lodge, due in June, will boast 139 rooms and suites done up in "Vermont-Alpine" style, golf course, a sybaritic 21,000-square-foot spa and a Cooper Wellness Center. It also will cater to hikers and birders, who help make summer Vermont's peak tourist season. 888-478-6938; stowemountainlodge.com
